

Penman Sedgwick LLP

Complaints Procedure

We are committed to providing a high-quality legal service to our clients. When something goes wrong, we need you to tell us about it. This will help us to sort out any mistakes or misunderstandings, and to improve our standards.

If you have a complaint, please raise the problem with the Solicitor responsible for your matter, or if you prefer, our Complaints Partner, Caroline Kernanec.

What will happen next?

1. We will acknowledge receipt of your complaint in writing within five days of receiving it
2. We will then investigate your complaint. This will normally involve our Complaints Partner reviewing your file and speaking to the member of staff who acted for you
3. In any case, she will send you a detailed written reply to your complaint, including her suggestions for resolving the matter, if appropriate, within 30 days of sending you the written acknowledgement of your complaint referred to in paragraph 1 above
4. At this stage, if you are still not satisfied, you should contact us again and we will arrange for another Partner unconnected with the matter at the firm to review the decision
5. We will write to you within 14 days of receiving your request for a review, confirming our final position on your complaint and explaining our reasons
6. If we need to change any of these timescales, we will let you know and explain why
7. If you are still not satisfied, you can contact the Legal Ombudsman, PO Box 6806, Wolverhampton, WV1 9WJ about your complaint. Any complaint to the Legal Ombudsman must usually be made within six months of the date of our final written response on your complaint but for further information, you should contact the Legal Ombudsman on 0300 555 0333 or at enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk. Note that the Legal Ombudsman service cannot be used by businesses or most other organisations unless they are below certain size limits. Further details are available from the Legal Ombudsman.
8. If a complaint cannot be resolved, you may also be able to ask for it to be referred to a process of alternative dispute resolution using a certified provider. We are not required to agree to such a request. In any case this is not available to businesses, only consumers. We will give you more information about that right if it becomes relevant
